

Spain

Capital companies file their financial statements with an agency of the commercial registrar in their province. Information is supplied to the Registro Mercantil Central [http://www.rmc.es/Home.aspx?lang=en] (Central Business Register).

For more information see the Commercial Register [http://www.registradores.org/en/index.jsp] section of the Spanish Registers [http://www.registradores.org/] site. “Anyone can obtain real-time access the interactive business information that the Association of Registrars provides through its website [www.registradores.org] in the paragraph on interactive market information. The information for certain corporate data, and the exact content of the annual accounts filed can be obtained immediately...”

Company information can also be obtained via the European Business Register [http://www.ebr.org/] (EBR). This links back to the above source.

The stock market requires that quoted companies supply particular information to the National Securities and Exchange Commission [http://www.cnmv.es/portal/home.aspx?lang=en] (CNMV).
